Minor Injury In Accident

A personal injury accident two miles east of Fillmore at 11:30 p.m. Tuesday was investigated by Deputy Sheriff Gerry Hoffa.

He reported that Lester VonTress, 60, Route 2, Coatesville was driving east on County Road 125 North in his 1967 Pontiac.

VonTress lost control of the car on the slick highway and the automobile struck a bridge abutment.

VonTress suffered a cut on his forehead and was taken to the Putnam County Hospital.

Deputy Hoffa estimated damage to the Pontiac at $1,200 and $200 to the bridge abutment.

Tis The Season To Be Jolly But Merchants Must Be On Lookout For Shoplifters At Yule Time

Tis the season to be jolly, unless you're a local merchant who has to be on the lookout for shoplifters.

Christmas means more shoppers in the stores and more packages being carried by customers. These factors make it easier for shoplifters to work and harder for employees to catch them.

Shoplifting is a $3.5 billion a year business and not only costs the individual businesses but the consumer as well.

Greencastle merchants are taking precautions to discourage an increase of theft during the Christmas holiday.

Jack Schlichtenmyer, manager of G.C. Murphy Co., said because he thought there was an increase in shoplifting at Christmas, he would try to have more sales personnel on the floor to keep an eye open for theft. He also said that when a person is caught shoplifting the store will go the limits the law permits in prosecuting. This is more true at Christmas time, he said, because the store wants to discourage shoplifting.

The manager of Penney's, Wayne Riley, said their personnel will try to watch fitting rooms more closely and will watch the main floor from the second floor.

Riley said that there seems to be more jewelry theft during this period and these areas will be closely watched. Riley also noted that besides the Christmas season bringing out more shoplifters, as inflation gets higher and prices get higher, shoplifting gets worse.

Lois Schmitt, manager of Lords Dress Shop, said the store hasn't had much shoplifting since they moved the dressing rooms to any area where they can be watched better. During Christmas season, as they do always, personnel will watch what people take into the fitting rooms.

Steve Grimes, assistant manager of Prevo's Department Store, said he thought there was definitely an increase in shoplifting at Christmas time especially of jewelry and cosmetics. He stressed the fact that the store will prosecute any shoplifters caught.

Shoplifting is larceny and a conviction means jail, a fine or both. Since shoppers eventually end up paying for what a shoplifter takes, they are encouraged to notify store authorities when they see someone committing the crime.

New Murphy Brothers Showroom Location To Be Occupied Monday

"This represents one of Greencastle's largest personal investment," said Paul Murphy, president of Murphy Brothers, Inc., the dealer for Pontiac, Oldsmobile and GMC trucks in Greencastle.

The brothers and their 15 employees will be moving their new and used cars and trucks to their new location on Indiana 43 North over this Thanksgiving weekend. "We will be closed Thursday through Sunday," he said, "and if everything goes well, we hope to open at our new location at eight o'clock Monday morning."

The brothers purchased the entire Doc James farm, a total of 76 plus acres, of which the dealership will be leasing five acres. This will enable them to have on display about 130 new and used cars and trucks, according to Russell Murphy, secretary-treasurer of the company. They will have ample space for six or seven cars on the indoor showroom and six or seven on the patio. The north lot will hold about 80 cars, according to his estimate, and the lot on the southside will be used for 35-40 used cars. This will allow them to build up their used car business, he explained.

The circular floor plan of the building includes a sales manager's office, the office for the owners, the showroom, a reception and waiting area for customers, an office for the bookkeeper, the service manager's office, the service area, two clean-up bays, a room for all the machines, the body shop with a special paint room with infrared lighting and a two-story parts area.

Parking for employees and customers will be on the back lot, according to Murphy. The building also has a fire retaining wall through the center of the entire building and the lighting is set up so that there will always be a few lights left on in the case of an emergency.

In addition to the Murphy brothers, Paul, Russell, and Ellsworth, who is the vice president, other sales personnel are Ed Maddox, Ron Branham and Gib Duell. Bruce Reeves is the service manager and Aaron Plessinger is in charge of the body shop.

"Pontiac, Oldsmobile and GMC have really cooperated with us on sending extra cars and trucks to us. Usually dealers have a hard time ordering at this time of the year, but they've been real good to us," said one of the owners.

The grand opening is tentatively scheduled for two weeks from Friday, but may have to be postponed if they run into any delays. They'll have an open house, complete

In case you might be interested, in observance of the Thanksgiving holiday, the courthouse offices will be closed Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Business as usual will be resumed next Monday morning.

I have been informed that Boy Scout Troop 99 of the First Christian Church, the oldest registered troop in the Wabash Valley, has a new Scout master. He is Cliff Heise and he resides at Longden Hall.

And speaking of Scouting, how many of you readers remember Camp Friend built by Troop 99 parents and friends of Scouts?

An old familiar face is missing in the meat department at the A. & P. Store.

I am referring to Dave Young. On the other hand, another familiar face has returned to the A. & P. after a long illness. I am speaking of Lois Evens.

My friends Harriette and Murray Lewis will be celebrating their 38th wedding anniversary this coming Friday, November 23rd.

Will anyone buy them a Blue Blazer? Anyway, congratulations, folks, and I hope you have many more.

Members of the Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs were to hold a joint Thanksgiving session today noon in the De Pauw Student Union Building.

The meal was to be served in the Union Ballroom and the Rotarians were to have charge of the program.

South Putnam School Board Buys Buses

The South Putnam School Board voted Monday night to purchase five bus chassis and five bus bodies pending approval of the State Tax Board on appropriations.

Upon the recommendation of Estel Scobee, bus supervisor for the corporation, the Board decided on one Chevrolet chassis from Jim Harris Chevrolet with an automatic transmission, one Ford with an automatic transmission, one Ford with a two-speed axle and a 230 engine and two Fords with two speed axles and 361 engines from King Morrison Foster Company.

The five bodies with trade-ins of one-to-one, will be four Bluebird bodies from Nix Sales in Posey County and one body from Carpenter Sales and Services in New Winchester.

South Putnam Classroom Teachers Association representatives Gary Broadstreet, president of the CTA, and William Gardner, both teachers at South Putnam High School, were present to state to the Board their intention of posting.

According to law, after a unit of determination is agreed upon by representatives of the teachers and the school board, a notice must be posted for 30 days declaring the group to be exclusive bargaining agent for the teachers involved in the school corporation, and stating any exclusions from the unit of determination.

Exclusions from the South Putnam CTA will be the superintendents, principals, assistant principals, and the athletic director, according to Harold Boone, superintendent. If there is no disagreement and no ruling is asked for, the agreement will be implemented after the first of the year.

Gardner and Broadstreet also made it known to the Board that the teachers would prefer to work Saturdays if time is lost due to fuel shortages than to extend the school year after May 28.

Mrs. Broadstreet of the Fillmore PTA sent in a list of recommendations on needed repairs at the Fillmore Elementary School. The Board, after hearing the list, said that several of the things had already been taken care of or were being taken under consideration.

Mrs. Judy Barker, president of the Reelsville PTA, and Mrs. Amy Hutcheson, secretary, were present and reported their PTA is going to buy a set of encyclopedias for the school.

In other action, the Board approved the additional appropriations as advertised and signed claims, before considering what stand to take on field trips in light of the current fuel shortage. It was decided to let the individual principals determine the worth of each field trip as it comes up.

Boone presented to the Board several recommendations on moves to be taken by the school corporation to conserve fuel, both gasoline and oil. He suggested that:

1. bus drivers start the buses only five minutes before leaving home in the morning.

2. bus drivers shut the engines down while waiting for the students upon leaving school or when stopping for coffee.

3. janitors fire the furnaces less often.

4. thermostats in all the schools be turned down and cafeteria temperatures be lowered.

5. all lights be turned off whenever possible.

6. extra-curricular activities try to meet all on the same night so the building will only have to be heated and lighted one night per week instead of two or three.

Boone suggested that the maintenance people of the individual principals should be responsible for seeing that these measures are carried out. He also had some recommendations in the case that allocations would be cut down. Boone said that if that should happen, they could shut off certain areas such as the gymnasium and the swimming pool. They could also, he said, shorten the school day or week.

The Board voted to accept an allocation of 24,000 gallons of gasoline from American Oil for Jan. 1 through April. Boone noted that this would make a total allocation of over 53,000 gallons, including that from Marathon.

It was agreed that the janitor at the Fillmore school should enlist some help to repair the roof on the building there during the Thanksgiving weekend. The Board also agreed to hire a daily part-time man to help the maintenance man for the four schools for the remainder of this calendar year. This would enable them to catch up on needed repairs.

The Board also voted to meet at 7:30 through the winter months instead of 8 p.m.

Papadopoulos Still

Plays Waiting Game

ATHENS (AP) — Tanks and troops remained on patrol in Athens today as strongman President George Papadopoulos continued an apparent waiting game with youths and workers calling for his overthrow.

There was no indication when the tanks will be withdrawn, and no way to tell whether the demonstrators plan to go back on the streets when the army leaves. There were about 15,000 demonstrators active at the height of the disorders last week and during the weekend, which left 11 persons dead and at least 148 injured.

Monday was the first day of relative calm since the rioting. Soldiers and police picked up scores of youths, workers and local union leaders for allegedly violating the martial law restrictions.

Some were later set free. But others got stiff sentences from the military tribunals, including prison terms of four and five years for six construction workers convicted of assembling in a group of more than five.

Spyridon Zournatis, under-secretary to Premier Spyros Markezinis, said 204 persons have been detained since the rioting.

As Athenians looked back on the disorders, there was disagreement about who led them. Both youths and construction workers took part in the protests. The hardhats are considered by some Greeks to be a heavily leftist element although they are among the best paid workers in the country with salaries ranging up to $30 per day.

Pro-government newspapers said hard-core leftists financed from abroad were responsible for the occupation of the Athens Polytechnic Institute late last week by thousands of young demonstrators. The institute became a rallying point for the protesters until police and troops stormed in just after midnight Saturday to seize control.

There was also confusion about who the institute's occupiers were. The deputy dean — said Monday that the majority of the occupiers were non-students. But reporters who visited the school during the occupation said the majority were students, although not all from the Polytechnic. There also were a number of persons well past university age, reporters said.

12-Year-Old Kennedy Doing Quite Well

WASHINGTON (AP) — The 12-year-old son of Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., is reported doing well both physically and emotionally as he continues to recuperate from the amputation of his cancerous right leg.

"He is in excellent spirits and is progressing satisfactorily," a spokeswoman at Georgetown University Hospital said early today of Edward Kennedy Jr.

The youngster's leg was removed above the knee last Saturday in an effort to halt the spread of bone cancer. The hospital said more than 1,000 get-well cards and letters, plus some gifts and flowers, arrived for him Monday. Telephone inquiries also were received from England, France, Germany, Australia and Argentina.

The spokeswoman said young Kennedy spent some time out of bed Monday night, as he had Sunday. Doctors have not decided when he might be discharged, she said.

Opening lead - jack of spades.

In duplicate bridge, an overtrick that would be insignificant in rubber bridge will often make the difference between an excellent score and a poor one. In this deal from a sectional tournament, declarer, by very good play, made five spades while others were making only four with the same cards.

(© 1973 King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

South won the trump lead with the ace and cashed the king. There was some danger of going down in four if the diamonds were divided 4-1 and the ace of hearts was offside, but when South played the A-K of diamonds and both opponents followed suit, ten tricks became certain.

Declarer's next problem — with the contract now assured — was to look for a safe way of making eleven tricks. Leading a club to the jack could not be countenanced because East might win with the king and return a heart to put the contract in jeopardy.

The safer method of playing a club to the ace and returning the queen — planning to discard a heart if East followed low — obviously would not guarantee eleven tricks, though it would of course preserve ten.

Declarer found a third and far better method of play when he cashed the ace of clubs at trick five, played a diamond to the queen and then put West on lead with a trump. Now it did not matter where the ace of hearts or king of clubs were located.

West was on lead and had to return a heart or a club, either of which would hand declarer his eleventh trick. So South, in this highly ingenious manner, achieved a top score by being the only declarer to make an overtrick.

Local Sorority & Telephone Pioneers Present TTY To Mental Health Assoc.

Charles R. Hatley, president of the Indianapolis Council of the Telephone Pioneers, and Mrs. Robert Batton, president of the state Kappa Kappa Kappa Sorority, formally presented a TTY (teletypewriter) coupled with a standard phone line for use in communicating with deaf people to the Mental Health Association in Indiana (MHA) Nov. 14.

"This equipment will enable the Association to expand its program of services to the mentally ill deaf in a dramatic fashion," George A. Houk, MHA program advisor, said. "MHA is the only voluntary state mental health organization in the country to have such a program, and this gift will help assure its success."

The Telephone Pioneers, a private organization of phone company employees, who perform a variety of service projects in off-duty hours and raise funds for worthy causes, donated the TTY machine and installation. Tri-Kappas are sponsoring the monthly phone bills to the Association.

"Last year, our organization donated a TTY to the Indianapolis Police Department to enable the deaf community to contact the police quickly in emergencies," Mr. Hatley said. "This year we decided to help the Mental Health Association's new program for the mentally ill deaf by providing the basic tool it needs to communicate with deaf volunteers and patients."

Mrs. Batton said at the presentation, "Tri Kappa is delighted to be able to play a small part in making this miraculous service available among the mentally ill deaf. One handicap is difficult enough for any individual to learn to overcome, but when multiple disabilities besiege a person, it is time for his more fortunate friends to try to share his burden. Tri Kappa is lucky to be able to help these handicapped Hoosiers."

One of the chief advantages to having a TTY, Mr. Houk explained, is that it will permit MHA staff to contact deaf volunteers and coordinate activities instantly without driving hundreds of miles every year to conduct business in person.

Son's a wrong number —mother tells him so

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1973 by Chicago Tribune-N.Y. News Synd., Inc.

DEAR ABBY: My 15-year-old son has built a bedroom in our garage. He asked me if he could install an extension phone out there as a friend of his had done. I told him I thought it was illegal and he should not do it.

I returned from a brief trip to find that he installed a phone in his room. [He bought the instrument from a radio shack store.]

Also, he has two road signs mounted on his wall. He said one was given to him by a friend, and the other he picked out of a gutter after having seen it there for a year. [I believe him.]

I think the phone should be removed from our son's room unless he is willing to have it installed by the phone company and pay monthly charges. I also believe the road signs should be taken down, since they were county property. What do you think? A MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: The same principle is involved in both instances. By-passing the phone company is taking a free ride on their monthly service, even tho the instrument was purchased elsewhere. Keeping road signs that belong to the county is also dishonest. I'm with you, mother.

DEAR READERS: If you are not accustomed to saying grace before each meal, but would like to offer a thanksgiving prayer at your table on this Thanksgiving Day, mine is yours for the reading. And here it is:

O, heavenly Father,
We thank Thee for the food
And remember the hungry.
We thank Thee for health
And remember the sick.
We thank Thee for friends
And remember the friendless
We thank Thee for freedom
And remember the enslaved.
May these remembrances stir us to service
That Thy gifts to us may be used for others.
Amen.

[Have a wonderful Thanksgiving, Love, Abby]

DEAR ABBY: I work in a hospital, and I wish you would please devote a little space in your column to the way people should conduct themselves when visiting a patient in the hospital. Recently a patient was admitted with a serious heart condition.

The patient's sister entered, hysterical and in tears. She threw herself upon the patient [who was wired and bottled on both sides] and screamed: "Thank God you're alive. I thought you'd be dead by the time I got back!"

Then the patient's husband said to his ailing wife: "When I told So and So you were rushed to the hospital with a heart attack, she said: 'She'll never make it!'"

This kind of talk at the bedside of a patient is uncalled for, and detrimental to the welfare of the patient. Please ask people to think before they speak, even tho they are emotionally upset.

N. Y. POST READER

DEAR READER: Your letter may serve a useful purpose, but common sense is such an uncommon commodity, some fools will continue to babble, regardless.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "SAME FIGHT THIS YEAR IN ATLANTIC, IA.": Settle it by going to your mother's for Thanksgiving, and to his mother's for Christmas.

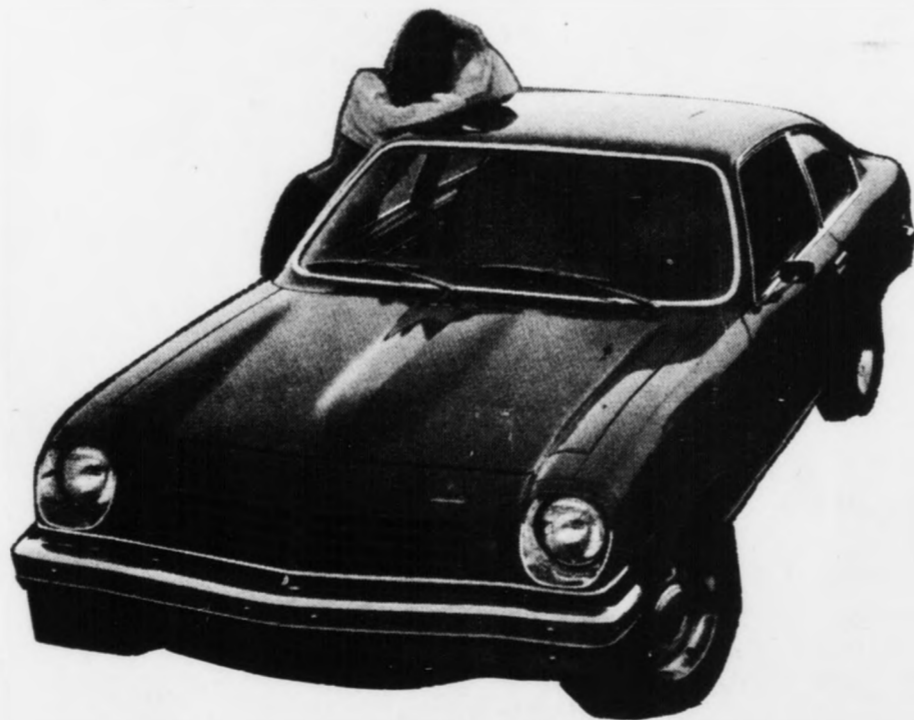

Problems? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, L.A., Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

Cox-Knight Vows Exchanged Sept. 30

Central Christian Church, Jackson, Mississippi, was the setting for the Sept. 30 marriage of Martha Patricia Cox, daughter of Mrs. Hattie Mae Cox, Jackson, Mississippi, and Edgar Allen Knight, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Knight of Crawfordsville, Indiana.

Brother Clinton A. Parke of Austell, Georgia, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The altar was centered with a candelabra holding three candles, for the candle lighting ceremony, and communion. White candelabra holding matched tapers flanked the altar surrounded by white baskets holding arrangements of white carnations and potted jade green palms.

Music was presented by Miss Becky Stewart, organist and Buddy Baker, soloist.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her brother, Michael Cox, and given in marriage by her mother and brother, wore a gown of white silk organza and hand clipped chantilly lace. The fitted bodice of lace featured epoulet caps of lace and organza bishop sleeves with lace cuffs, adorned with pearls. The full organza skirt was bordered with ruffled lace hem and scalloped edge. The waist had a pleated cummerbund, the veil of imported silk illusion fell from a caplet of lace and pearls to blend the chapel train of the gown. Pearls were scattered on the panels of split illusion. She carried a nosegay of white daisies, carnations and baby's breath and wore a watch which was her gift from the bridegroom.

Attending her sister as maid of honor was Delaine Cox of Jackson. Bridesmaid was Cathy Whalden of Jackson. The honor attendant wore a wine crepe gown with white lace on the yoke and on short puffed sleeves, A-Line skirt and criss cross band tying in the back. A matching dion bow with circles of illusion adorned her hair. The bridesmaid wore a matching dress and bow of turquoise. They both carried nosegays of white daisies, pink carnations and baby's breath.

Karen Travis cousin of the bride, served as flowergirl. She wore a gown of pink crepe and carried a basket of rose petals.

Attending the bridegroom

as best man was Bill Fordyce, Milligan College, Tennessee, and Steve Gentry of Crawfordsville, Indiana, was groomsmen. Ushers were Richard Barnes and Alton Harvey of Jackson.

Mrs. Cox chose for her daughter's wedding a floor length gown of emerald green crepe with chiffon sleeves and lace trim. The mother of the bridegroom selected a floor length gown of pink with the bodice shades of pink and wine. Both mothers wore orchid corsages.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church. The register table was at the front entrance of the church and was presided over by Brenda Travis, cousin of the bride.

The bride's table covered with lace over pink, held the three tiered cake accented with pink roses and topped with wedding bells. The table was centered with an arrangement of pink carnations, white mums, daisies and baby's breath and held the crystal punch bowl. Assisting at the reception were Brenda Travis, Pat Fordyce and Marla Ross.

For traveling to Meridian, Mississippi, and Nashville, Tennessee, the bride chose a bright orange polyester long sleeved dress with matching shoes and purse and wore an orchid corsage.

The couple will make their home in Greencastle, where the groom is owner and manager of the Greencastle Credit Bureau.

The parents of the bridegroom entertained the wedding party with arehearsal dinner at the Ramada Inn on the eve of the wedding.

A luncheon for the wedding party and out of town guests was given by the mother of the bride at her home.

DEFENDING WCC CHAMPION ...

North Putnam Cougars Open vs Rox

"We're small and inexperienced, but we're rugged."

So says North Putnam coach Jim Sharp about his varsity cagers, who open their season at Rockville Friday night.

Sharp has only three returning lettermen from last year's 16-6 squad, which tied Owen Valley for a share of the West Central Conference championship and copped runner-up honors at the sectional.

Terry Tippin, a 6' forward, heads the trio, bringing with him an 18 point average from last year's campaign. Returning to play the other corner will Eric Sutherland—a 5'11" senior who was Sharp's sixth man a year ago.

The third returning senior, Doug Perry, saw limited action last year, but the 5'6" guard will be counted on to anchor the backcourt, along with 5'10" junior Mark Hess.

Rounding out the starting lineup will be Brett Wagner, playing the pivot at 6'2".

Realizing that his cagers will be looking up at most opponents, Sharp has decided to press frequently making it as tough as possible for the enemy to get inside, where the Cougars are vulnerable.

North Putnam will use a man-to-man full court press, dropping back into a sagging man-to-man, fronting and two-timing inside. Sharp allowed as how a big man might shoot over his defense, but if he put the ball on the floor just once, a Cougar would gobble it up and be off and running.

Which is another thing that North Putnam fans will see a lot of this year - the fast break. Here again, Sharp plans to take advantage of what he rates as the "above average quickness" of his team, having them run whenever the chance presents itself.

To run, however, the Cougars will first have to rebound. Since they aren't going to be jumping over anybody to get the ball off the boards, Sharp has had his boys concentrate on blocking out since practice began two weeks ago.

Once they do gain possession, Sharp advocates the "find an open lane and fill it" fast break, keeping the ball in the middle after the initial outlet pass.

If the break is slowed, North Putnam will run a continuity pattern against the man-to-man, picking away from the ball and trying to keep their taller opponents moving. Should a tea zone them, the Cougars will go to a match-up offense.

Either way, Sharp will run his offense as a reaction to the defense, relying on counter-moves when the holes present themselves.

Running and pressing as much as planned, the Cougars figure to go to their bench often, where junior guards Jerry Miller (5'8") and Rex Call (5'10") are first on call.

The rest of the squad includes juniors Harold Roe (5'6"), Mike Greene (5'6"), Steve Bullerick (5'11"), Mark Rossok (6'), Jeff Elliot (6'1"), and sophomore Jim Brothers (6'3").

Looking ahead to conference action, Sharp rates Avon as a strong contender to lead the WCC, starting a front line of 6'8", 6'7", and 6'7", all veterans.

Sharp also gives Cloverdale a good chance at the conference title, and, even with his own team's lack of height and experience, figures that the Cougars must be considered when it comes down to deciding the WCC.

They have at least eight games before beginning conference play, ample time to discover and reinforce weaknesses, and at the same time gain crucial experience.

By the time the Cougars take on their first conference rival, Edgewood, after the turn of the year, Sharp will know what he has and what he hasn't, and, as with his offense, will react accordingly to the situation.

His first full view of his boys in action will come against a team that is equally inexperienced—Rockville.

The host for the Cougars' opener will feature only two seniors in their starting lineup.

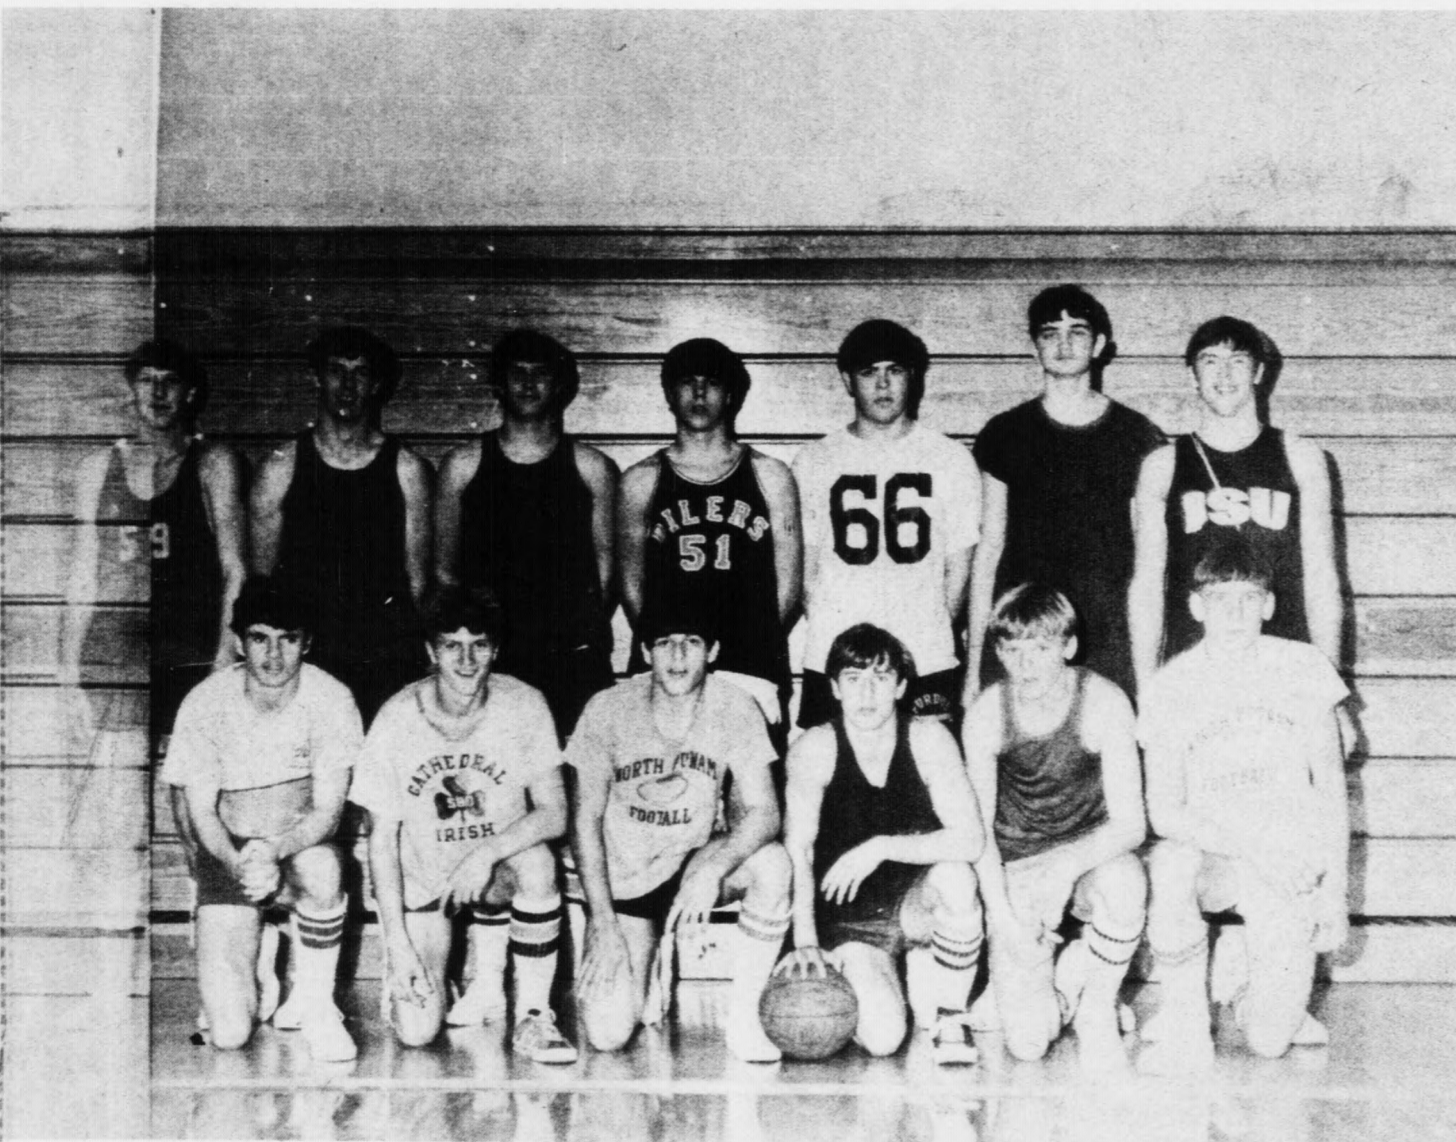

North Putnam will come up against a much more rugged opponent in their

Ohio State-Michigan Winner Takes Bananas

By GEORGE STRODE
Associated Press Sports Writer
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — "There's a lot of bananas hanging on this one for both teams. I've never seen so many awards and titles resting on an Ohio State-Michigan game."

That was the sizeup of the nationally-televised (ABC) Big Ten title showdown at Michigan Saturday by Esco Sarkkinen, an Ohio State assistant who has been a coach or player in the series since 1937.

Sarkkinen, ticked off the conference title, Rose Bowl berth, possible national crown, Coach of the Year possibility, Outland and Heisman Trophy considerations "plus half a dozen All-American honors with an outstanding performance."

The former Ohio State All-American end said, "There are no favorites, no underdogs in this one. It will be a hammer and anvil type of game."

Sarkkinen, who missed six games in the series because of high school coaching and service, said the current Michigan and Ohio State teams are the best ones.

"You always go with the present," he said, "because of the physical makeup of the players and the specialized coaching staffs. Present day football is in a class by itself. You can't compare apples and oranges."

Would he say this is Bo Schembechler's best in five Michigan seasons?

"The only difference from one year to the next is that they (Michigan) give No. 83 to somebody else," Sarkkinen said. "I mean that as a compliment, too. The people at each position at both schools come out of the same mold."

Sarkkinen said it takes a full 60 minutes to win this one, adding, "Somewhere in the course of the game, the tempo will change with a mistake. Most of all, the winner will make the big play."

As expected, Woody Hayes locked the practice door gates and told writers at his weekly news conference Monday, "If we let one in, we have to let all of you in."

Hayes said he would leave predictions of the outcome between the 9-0 Buckeyes and 10-0 Wolverines to writers.

"Who will win this week? You can check the statistics and still come up with some questions. We'll let you fellows decide that."

Hayes said Ohio State would be in excellent physical shape in its bid for its third Rose Bowl trip in the last four years. He said safety Rich Parsons and wingback Brian Baschnagel, who missed a 55-13 victory over Iowa with injuries last week, would be ready.

Tailback Archie Griffin, who gained a school record 246 yards against the Hawkeyes, was named the OSU Back of the Week. Cornerback Tim Fox was selected the top defensive performer and credited with the No. 1 defensive play for a blocked punt. It set up the first touchdown.

S. Putnam Eagles Claw Yellow Jackets, 97-70

The South Putnam Eagles scored their second straight win last night as they overpowered the Staunton Yellow Jackets, 97-70.

The Eagles ran up a quick lead in the first period on two fast field goals by Gordon Knetzer and Jeff Burdge, and South Putnam continued to hold its lead the remainder of the game.

At the end of the first period, the Yellow Jackets had a 15 point Eagle lead to overcome, but the Eagles upped this scoring margin during the second period, with Mark Cowger, Greg Hammond and Daryl Mayo earning over 10 points in field goals, while Wayne Erwin scoring a field goal as the buzzer sounded at the half, putting the score at 46-29.

Staunton pushed back during the third period with Steve Brown getting nine points, but the Eagles' lead was too big to overcome, and from that point onward South Putnam continued inexorably to the win.

Starting the final period the score stood 73-46, a 30 point advantage for the Eagles, and with 2:41 to go, Dale Mendenhall, Rudy Briones, Erwin, Hammond, and Craig Sibbitt continued to push the Eagles lead to the final score, 97-70.

The Eagles' Sibbitt led the winning team with 17 points while Cowger tallied 16, Burdge, 14; while Knetzer added 12 and Greg Hammond 10 counters. Brown took game scoring honors collecting 29 points for the Yellow Jackets. The Eagles record is now 2-0.

Coach Tom Goldsberry asked about the points on which South Putnam was able to capitalize against Staunton, said, "the board, defense-offense and quick rebounding, especially by Jeff Burdge, who is developing into an excellent rebounder was the key. Looking ahead to the game against Cloverdale on Friday, Nov. 30, Goldsberry is expecting real competition, yet he feels that the Eagles have proven that they too are real competition.

Eagles Jeff Burdge, 50 and Wayne Erwin, 54, go up for a rebound against two Staunton cagers in action during the South Putnam team's blasting of the Staunton Yellow Jackets 97-70 on the Eagles home floor. For the night the Eagles displayed strong rebounding with Burdge showing progress in his board game. (Banner-Graphic Photo)

Gas Chamber Still Ready For Operation

SAN QUENTIN Calif. (AP)—Hopes of closing grim old San Quentin Prison have been abandoned, and its apple-green gas chamber is being kept in working order.

Less than two years ago, Gov. Ronald Reagan announced the infamous penitentiary overlooking San Francisco Bay would be shut by the end of 1974. In subsequent months, inmate population fell from 2,200 to 1,400.

But now the birds that found nests in the deserted five-story south cell block have been chased by a new wave of inmates. The population is approaching 3,000 and rising by 100 a week.

"Other places were getting overcrowded and here was a prison with a lot of empty beds," prison information officer Robert Nyberg said in an interview.

Nyberg said the number of inmates in California prisons is growing because the state parole board has adopted "a more rigorous policy" in refusing paroles and the courts are imposing more prison sentences on convicted criminals.

"There might be a few old-timers here who are glad we're staying open," Nyberg said. "But most people—prisoners and guards—would like to see the place closed."

He said the 122-year-old prison has very small cells, many of which will have to be shared by two inmates when the prison reaches its expected 3,800-man capacity early next year.

He said the two-seat octagonal gas chamber has been kept in working condition. It has been idle since 1967 while courts pondered the death penalty. The California Supreme Court ruled executions unconstitutional last year, but a new state law will reinstate them as of Jan. 1 for 11 crimes.

The former Death Row is being used to segregate troublemakers. Of the 107 men who awaited death there, many—including cult leader Charles Manson—have been transferred to other prisons. The rest, like Robert F. Kennedy's assassin, Sirhan B. Sirhan, remain in other areas of San Quentin.

San Quentin already has a long, bloody history, including the Aug. 21, 1971, violence in which three guards and three prisoners died, including black militant George Jackson.

Tornadoes Kill Five

A major autumn storm packing heavy snow, subzero temperatures and thunderstorms whipped the midcontinent today after a tornado attack left five dead Monday.

The tornadoes triggered in Oklahoma by a clash of warm and frigid air left at least 30 injured. Authorities said three of the five dead were infants.

Funnel clouds touched down in north-central and northwestern Oklahoma and in northwestern Kansas, damaging property, uprooting trees, downing power lines and overturning mobile homes.

Subzero cold stung the northern border states; heavy thunderstorms washed over the Plains; and heavy snows accumulated in the mountains of the Southwest.

A foot of snow clogged mountain areas of New Mexico, and travel became hazardous in northern sections of the state.

Thunderstorms unleashed heavy rain on the central Plains. Oklahoma City was hit by nearly two inches of rain; and Emporia, Kan., and Grand Island, Neb., had well over an inch before dawn.

Snow also developed in the colder air to the west and northwest of the storm center. North Platte, Neb.; Goodland, Kan.; Denver; and Lamar, Colo., all had three inches of new snow before daybreak.

A foot of snow whitened the foothills southwest of Denver, and heavy-snow warnings were issued for the Colorado mountains for tonight.

Temperatures dipped below zero in Montana and North Dakota and into the 20s as far south as western Kansas and northern New Mexico. A cold-wave warning was posted for central and southwestern Oklahoma.

A large storm with rain and snow spread into the Pacific Northwest. Storm warnings were issued for the Washington and Oregon coasts, and gales were expected south as far as northwestern California.

Dense fog covered the middle Mississippi and Ohio valleys and parts of the south Atlantic coastal region.

Temperatures before dawn ranged from -6 at Havre, Mont., to 78 at Key West, Fla., and Kingsville and Corpus Christi, Tex.

Supreme Court Overturns Lower Court Ruling

WASHINGTON (AP)—An Indiana Supreme Court decision in the case of a student convicted in an anti-war demonstration, has been overturned by the U.S. Supreme Court.

The student, Gregory Hess of Indiana University, was convicted in Bloomington of disorderly conduct. The state Supreme Court upheld the verdict.

But on Monday, the U.S. Supreme Court, in a 6-3 decision, cleared Hess.

The student was arrested by the sheriff of Monroe County after shouting, "We'll take the street." The sheriff and deputies had just marched down the street to clear it of 100 to 150 demonstrators.

The U.S. high court noted that witnesses "indicated Hess did not appear to be exhorting the crowd to go back into the streets. His statement did not appear to be a threat to any particular person or group and his tone although loud was no louder than that of other persons in the area."

State's attorneys argued that Hess, by his statement, referred to taking the street later or again.

The Supreme Court's unsigned majority opinion stated there were no grounds for convicting the defendant for his words, because there was no evidence he was advocating immediate illegal activity.

A dissenting opinion signed by Chief Justice Warren E. Burger and Justices Harry A. Blackmun and William H. Rehnquist, stated it was not clear Hess had no intention of provoking immediate illegal action.

Turns Factory Over To Workers

OVADA, Italy (AP) — He was tired of trade union battles and was risking a heart attack besides. So Rinaldo Repetto, owner of the Stampofusione Metalli factory, decided last October to withdraw from the business and let his workers run the place themselves.

Ten of his 27 employees accepted the offer, and for more than a year they have been the worker-bosses of the metal casting plant in this northern Italian town 20 miles northwest of Genoa.

Though the local unions have accused the workers of "playing into Repetto's hands," the factory's production has risen markedly.

Absenteeism, which reaches 15 to 21 per cent in many Italian industries, has all but disappeared. The work week is up from 40 to 50 hours.

"We had a hard start," said Fanny Barboro, the only woman in the group. "By now, though, we have paid all our debts, and next year's balance is going to show a profit, which we intend to divide equally after the required depreciation allowances."

The worker-bosses bought the factory's metal stocks from Repetto when they took over and now pay him a yearly rent for the factory. They then hired Repetto, who is 64, as a plant supervisor at an undisclosed salary.

During the past year the 10 workers kept their salaries unchanged at about $2 an hour and hired seven new workers at the same pay.

"Now that we have a direct interest in the factory, it is obvious we do our best to increase production and profits," worker Stefano Ghiglione said.

Over-all sales from the 17-person factory, which makes metal parts for bigger companies, nearly doubled in the past year from the level when 27 workers were on the job. Sales reported topped $680,000.

"It's no wonder they achieve such results," a local trade unionist said. "They work longer and have no pauses in production. Sometimes they even work on holidays."

The workers are supposed to make their factory decisions together at monthly meetings, but some people in the town say nearly all the meetings in the past few months have been cancelled. They think most decisions still are made by Repetto.

But Fanny Barboro says, "There is a lot of bitter criticism of our enterprise just because many people cannot tolerate the fact that we workers have proved we can run a factory, and run it extremely well."

ELMORE JEWELERS

izing President Nixon to order gasoline rationing and other fuel-saving steps.

Approved Monday by a vote of 78 to 6, the bill now goes to the House, which is in recess for Thanksgiving but which will reconvene next Monday.

Sen. Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash., chief sponsor of the bill, said he hopes to have it on Nixon's desk next week.

The action came as administration officials said closing gas stations on Sunday, a ban on Sunday driving, and shutting public parks to automobiles are among the steps being considered to deal with the problem.

The Senate-passed bill declares a year-long nationwide energy emergency during which the President would maintain a system of rationing in readiness, although not necessarily in effect. Nixon has said he hopes to avoid rationing.

Reductions in speed limits, thermostat restrictions in both public and private offices and curtailment of hours in schools and other institutions would be authorized.

The President could also order power plants and factories to switch from oil and gas to less scarce coal if possible. Regulatory agencies could change the rules governing schedules of airlines and railroads.

Some mine operators, he said in a statement, "are shamelessly trying to exploit public fears of domestic fuel shortages in order to convince Congress that unless safety standards are relaxed, coal production cannot be increased."

United Mine Workers President Arnold Miller says the union will never agree to a relaxation of mine safety standards to increase coal production.

Some mine operators, he said in a statement, "are shamelessly trying to exploit public fears of domestic fuel shortages in order to convince Congress that unless safety standards are relaxed, coal production cannot be increased."

backs because they consider Tokyo's Middle East policy unfriendly to the Arab world.

Japan depends upon the Middle East for most of its oil needs and it is feared any cut-back will seriously affect the Japanese economy.

The industries asked to voluntarily reduce their fuel consumption are steel, automobile, petrochemical, heavy electrical, household electric appliance, automobile, tire, chemical fiber, aluminum smelting, nonferrous metal smelting, cement, sheet glass and paper and pulp.

In Seoul, the South Korean government ordered taxis, trucks, buses, ferries and airlines on domestic flights to reduce their operations 10 to 30 per cent as the nation's oil supply situation worsened.

The government also ordered all gasoline stations closed on Sunday.

Foreign chartered aircraft will be allowed to land in Korea only if they are carrying enough fuel to fly on to their next stop, government officials said.

Mass transit systems under the bill would get federal subsidies as well as high priority on fuel.

Industries would be allowed to violate clean air standards if forced to burn dirtier fuels. Actions taken under the bill would be exempt for one year from any requirement for an environmental impact statement.

Before final passage the Senate adopted an amendment that would allow Congress to terminate the emergency after six months, if it decides the energy-saving measures are no longer needed.

Indiana State Chopper Flights Curtailed

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Some use of helicopters by state police will have to be curtailed because of fuel shortages, says Supt. Robert L. DeBard.

"We already have stopped using the helicopters for blood transfers and ordered patrol cars be used instead," he told the State Police Board Monday. "The system has been abused, and we are now facing a shortage of aviation gasoline."

The board ordered a study, to be ready for its Dec. 17 meeting, on helicopter use. Some board members voiced concern because the choppers are used to transport accident victims and are on occasion the difference between life and death. The helicopter also is "extremely useful" in searches and chases, the board pointed out.

DeBard said officials are discussing trading in five state-owned choppers for three. Remaining funds would be used for fixed-wing aircraft.

The department had hoped to provide one chopper for each of the four area headquarters, but this may be impossible now because of expenses.

Meanwhile, the board approved plans for construction of a nearly square, two-story general headquarters on the far east side of Indianapolis.

Plans for an X-shaped building were scrapped earlier by the Indiana State Police Building Commission.

Travelers Could Have Trouble Finding Gas

By JAY PERKINS
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Thanksgiving travelers may find more service stations closed this year than they did last year, but supplies of gasoline seem to be holding up well, an American Automobile Association spokesman said today.

Kay Aldous said spot checks by the nationwide organization showed no major gasoline shortages, although he said he had received reports that isolated service stations were limiting sales.

"The thing that should be emphasized is that there will be no major inconveniences for holiday travel," he said. "There are no problems of fuel at this time although, over the holidays, it is likely that a number of stations will be operating on schedules similar to what they've been doing on Sunday since Labor Day."

Aldous based his prediction about more Thanksgiving closings on "a pattern that we've watched for 13 weeks."

This pattern, he said, shows an increase in the number of stations closing earlier in the evening and on weekends and holidays, as they had done during the gasoline shortage last summer.

Aldous said he anticipated no problems for travelers on major highways and turnpikes, "where many stations stay open 24 hours a day."

He said drivers in remote areas should keep their gasoline tanks at least half full. He also said drivers in those areas should cut back on night driving.

Narcotic Officers Arrest 50 In New Jersey Raid

NEW BRUNSWICK, N.J. (AP) — More than 50 persons were arrested on narcotics charges in early morning raids today in nine counties, according to the Middlesex County prosecutor.

The raids shut down a more than $1 million annual business in 30 towns in sale of drugs brought in from four other states, Prosecutor John S. Kuhlthau said.

Marijuana, hashish, mescaline and "speed" had been brought in from New Mexico, Indiana, Pennsylvania and Oregon, Kuhlthau said.

First Asst. Prosecutor Judson Hamlin, who coordinated the raids, said 97 arrest warrants had been issued and 55 to 60 persons had been seized by midmorning. Some 300 law enforcement officers took part in the raids.

Black Market In Progress

CHICAGO (AP) — The executive director of the Illinois Gasoline Dealers Association says that at least 12 dealers in Illinois and Indiana are exploiting the fuel shortage by engaging in black marketing.

The director, Robert Jacobs, said at a news conference Monday that several dealers are stockpiling gas supplies from major oil companies and reselling them at high prices to stations caught short.

Jacobs, also secretary-treasurer of the Indiana Gasoline Dealers, said that although the move may not be illegal it is immoral.

He recommended taking steps to make it illegal as well as adopting the following measures to cope with the growing gasoline shortage.

Mandatory closing on Sunday of filling stations to discourage driving on that day.

Disclosure by oil refiners of fuel oil and gasoline production figures.

Removal of emission controls on cars, which he said would reduce gasoline consumption up to 20 per cent.

Mandatory allocation of gasoline to dealers.

Lower all speed limits by 10 m.p.h. except where the maximum is 35 m.p.h. or less.

Japanese Government Asks Industries To Cut Back On Oil Usage, Electric

TOKYO (AP) — The Japanese government asked the country's major industries today to cut back their use of oil and electricity by 10 per cent to help combat a fuel shortage.

At the same time, Chief Cabinet Secretary Susumu Nikaido announced that Japan shortly will send special envoys to the Middle East to discuss Tokyo's fuel problems and foreign policy.

The Arab oil producers have included Japan among the countries targeted for oil cutbacks because they consider Tokyo's Middle East policy unfriendly to the Arab world.

Japan depends upon the Middle East for most of its oil needs and it is feared any cut-back will seriously affect the Japanese economy.

The industries asked to voluntarily reduce their fuel consumption are steel, automobile, petrochemical, heavy electrical, household electric appliance, automobile, tire, chemical fiber, aluminum smelting, nonferrous metal smelting, cement, sheet glass and paper

and pulp.

In Seoul, the South Korean government ordered taxis, trucks, buses, ferries and airlines on domestic flights to reduce their operations 10 to 30 per cent as the nation's oil supply situation worsened.

The government also ordered all gasoline stations closed on Sunday.

Foreign chartered aircraft will be allowed to land in Korea only if they are carrying enough fuel to fly on to their next stop, government officials said.

WORRY CLINIC

Roger wonders why
Thanksgiving Day is a North American event. The Pilgrims focussed on personal freedoms while in South America the goal was "Gold" vs. "God." Gov.
Bradford also says communism didn't produce the crops that capitalism quickly demonstrated!

CASE Y-575: Roger B., aged 17, is a high school senior.

"Dr. Crane," he began, "next week I am to debate the classmate on why North America has surpassed South America."

"Since both countries are rich in natural resources and were settled by Europeans, why has North America been the world leader while South America is looked on as a backward continent?"

GOD VS. GOLD

Bluntly, there's an "ell" of a difference, as between "God"
vs. "Gold."

North America was colonized at Plymouth Rock by sturdy artisans and farmers who came, seeking freedom to worship "God."

But "Gold" was the goal of those who explored South America.

Our Thanksgiving Day vividly depicts this ideological difference.

For it was established by Gov.
Bradford as a religious event evolved by the working class, not the nobility!

In South America, religion was dictated by the kings and rulers, who tortured the natives unmercifully just to find any hidden hoard of gold.

Remember, the Mayflower was not filled with soldiers or military protectors of European monarchs, greedy for plunder!

North America's freedom of religion was also matched by its other desires for those liberties later codified in our famous U.S. Constitution.

"All men are endowed by their Creator . . ." was the voluntary salute to Deity by those who signed our Declaration of Independence.

" . . . with certain inalienable rights," the sentence continues;
"among these are life, liberty and the PURSUIT of happiness."

Please note that I have capitalized the word "PUR-SUIT." Why?

Because the "PURSUIT" of happiness differs greatly from happiness itself!

Unless we diligently try to pursue happiness, as by hard work, honesty, thrift and elbow grease, we are not entitled to happiness.

Yet a false notion has spread widely throughout America in recent years, to the effect that everybody is automatically deserving of happiness, regardless.

This erroneous idea has even permeated much of the Health, Education and Welfare

Department of our government!

Yet Jesus also vetoed such a concept, for Christ definitely advocated selective philanthropy, not indiscriminate food stamps or socialized medicine.

That's why Jesus gave the hungry folks one free picnic, enjoyed by 5,000, but he made no effort thereafter to prevent the starvation of the many thousands of shiftless or disbelieving poor who were within a stone's throw of his itinerant ministry!

Moreover, Christ tried socialized medicine by curing the 10 lepers, plus several blind, deaf, crippled and feverish patients.

But he allowed probably

Recruiting Of Priests Through Advertising

NEW YORK (AP)—"Father John O'Leary. If he's not in church, he's probably in jail," the advertisement declared in big type.

The newspaper and magazine ad, describing the work of a priest who counsels prisoners, is part of a $100,000 advertising campaign being launched by the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of New York to help find recruits for its shrinking priesthood.

The advertising effort is believed to be the first of such scope by any diocese in the nation.

Its theme: "The New York priest. God knows what he does for a living."

"I'm sure that God does know it, but we're anxious for everyone else to know it," Terence Cardinal Cooke, archbishop of New York, said at a news conference Monday.

The cardinal said the archdiocese had been faced with a shortage of priests for years.

The Rev. George Thompson, director of vocations for the archdiocese, said there currently were 950 priests, compared with 1,000 to 1,100 during the late 1960s.
